

OH THUNDER!

JOSH BECK WENT OUT TO HOE HIS CROP.

AT EVERY STEP HIS LID WOULD FLOP.

IT MUFFED THE LIGHT
HIS VISION NEEDS,

SO HE CUT THE CORN AND LEFT THE WEEDS.

PRESIDENT IN INDIANAPOLIS— APPOINTS CHICAGOANS

Indianapolis, Oct. 12.—Pres. Wilson was due to arrive in Indianapolis early this afternoon. He is billed to attend a luncheon and review a parade before he starts back toward Shadow Lawn late tonight.

Enroute he announced his appointments to the new advisory commission to be associated with the council of national defense. Of the seven appointed, two are Chicagoans, Julius Rosenwald, and Dr. Franklin H. Martin. The other members are H. E. Coffin, Sam'l Gompers, Dan'l Willard, B. M. Baruch and Hollis Godfrey.

OLD WHITE SLAVE DAYS ARE RECALLED BY STORY

The federal authorities are investigating a story told by 19-year-old Ethel Collins of Milwaukee that recalls the old white slave days in Chicago. The girl says she met a "charming Chicago woman" in Milwaukee, who appeared to take a liking to her and invited her to visit her at home at 31st st. and Wabash av. When the girl finally came here she found it was a resort and she was kept a prisoner. Jennie Brown is being held as an alleged violator of the Mann act.
